RECREATION COMMITTEE

Council Member Davis said the Easter egg hunt went well. There was a lot of help from the different organizations in town. It was a big hit. He will get the amounts for the new banners and support for the poles as soon as he can. He asked Council Member Maxfield if there was any news on the grant for the cemetery to be ADA compliant. It doesn't look like we will get that grant but she is looking at some other ones.

PLANNING COMMISSION

Council Member Atherley wanted to talk about the auxiliary/shed ordinance. He couldn't find in the ordinances a section about the size of sheds that would be exempt from getting a permit. He would like to take this before Planning Commission and have them work on it. Recorder Bigler said the city adopted the State codes back in the 80's. The State code says 200 square feet. He also wants to clarify the excavation permit to let everyone know a permit is required. The Mayor said he would be willing to help the Planning Commission if they needed it.
