DISCUSSION ITEMS

Shay Morrison, Community Advisor.

The CIB deadline is this Friday. The city still does not have any projects listed. Council Member Maxfield has a list she will email it to him. The Planning Grant for trails closes May 15th. The Hazard Mitigation Plan workbook was sent out for review and approval.

Dan Fechner, City Engineer.

Not at the meeting.

SCADA Support Improvements.

Mayor Jenkins could not print the improvements, so the item was tabled.

2026-2027 Budget.

Council Member Maxfield asked for projects to go on the budget. There was a discussion on projects for the budget. They do not need to be perfect but fairly accurate. Some items brought up were road base for the EPA pile, getting water to the cemetery, working on the parking lot at the park, and sidewalks.

CONSENT AGENDA

Review of Consent Agenda Items:

Minutes From April 13, 2026, Council Meeting.

The Council had reviewed the minutes.

Recorder Bigler mentioned the people remodeling the home next door asked about using the city easement for the gas line. The Mayor explained the situation to the Council. Recorder Bigler said they left a packet with documents that need to be signed. A gentleman who had been dealing with the last administration on a piece of property he wanted to purchase was wondering what the status was. She explained to them what had been done. The city attorney was supposed to get a property agreement drawn up. Mayor Jenkins will need to contact the attorney.

Council Member Davis asked who oversees cleaning of the city buildings. They need cleaning. The Mayor said he will talk to her.

ADJOURNMENT

Council Member Nedreberg made a motion to adjourn. Council Member Maxfield seconded the motion. All in favor meeting adjourned.
